WHAT IS THIS NOTICE?

Campus Timely Warnings are released by the UC Davis Police Department when certain crimes are reported on or near campus property, in compliance with federal law. These timely warnings provide information about campus safety situations, and allow campus community members to take precautions for personal safety. Had this been an emergency notification you would have received this message right after the incident occurred with clear directions on what next steps to take for safety. If you would like to learn more about why these alerts are sent to you by the UC Davis Police Department please visit the CLERY website at http://clerycenter.org/summary-jeanne-clery-act.
